PINK TIE NEWS

AUGUST 2009

October 24, 2009 7:30 –12:00

Where do I start with all the new changes? There are so many wonderful new additions this year. So much excitement.

I welcome any thoughts you have to make this year even bigger and better. You can contact me at Susan@PinkTieGala.org

See you on the dance floor
Susan Groves
River City Charities

First, we are honored to be adding a special dance performance by VCU Oncologist Dr. Harry Bear. He is a hero to many breast cancer patients all over the area. He has agreed to be our first doctor to perform at the Gala as a symbol of all the hard working medical personal who give so much everyday.

Second, his dance partner is Diane B. Wilson, Associate Professor, breast cancer researcher and board member of Susan G. Komen.

Third, noted speaker, broadcaster and now author Casey Quinlan will appear to speak and sign her new book Cancer for Christmas with a portion of the proceeds going to the event.

I can't tell you how excited I am about these new elements of the night. Every year it amazes me at how much people pull together and want to help. This is a great event and I love being part of it.

Eleanor and her staff at Rigby's Jig did such a wonderful job of teaching our survivor dance team from last year, I was thrilled when she asked if she could do it again this year.

Rigby's Jig is so much more than a dance studio. It is the most relaxing place to go; I always feel like I'm at home on the comfy red sofa by the door.

Everyone is always so happy, enjoying the feeling that you can only get from dancing. It really is a great place to be part of. Most of the 08 dance team continues to dance at Rigby's Jig and would love to dance with you. Stop by and checkout all the great classes they have to offer.

Take your partner on a date, go dancing.
